DIVISIONAL HR DIRECTOR

This HRD role offers opportunity to develop and drive commercially relevant HR strategy to achieve real impact across a large BU, where HR is already well positioned from its business alignment, collaborative style and effective processes.

With BU VPs used to high-quality HR, you will coach and support talented managers in the successful implementation of initiatives that focus on change and people development to underpin commercial and service leadership. This requires excellent, contemporary HR capability coupled with superior consulting skill and business acumen.

Reporting to the VP HR and working closely with other divisional HRDs and your HR team, success also demands large corporate experience and strategic focus, aligned with a collaborative, pragmatic and solutions-oriented approach.

Degree qualified, you will have a high potential career path with your HR expertise gained in a fast-paced, complex organisation, also having worked at a senior level within a matrix structure.

Please apply thorough our website, ref HRD1.
